To get a kiss from a girl you like, you'll need to make sure you know each other well enough for her to feel comfortable around you. When the time is right, look for a private moment, test the waters with light physical contact, and lead the way by leaning forward for a tender closed mouth kiss. Trying to get that first kiss from your "special someone" can be both exciting and anxiety-provoking,

I felt that the other versions lacked something that this one had, and that's individuality. While the others felt like just another cliché, Miss In Kiss acknowledged that it was a story that's been done before and added it's own tune. The vibe this drama gave off was very cute and light hearted; it was easy to watch, especially with the short episodes. No sub plots were dragged out and the ...
